'Grove-In' Coming...

By SCOTT HOLTZMAN

There's going to be a big newsounds grove-in in early May sponsored by The Houston Post. It'll be a big rock show featuring local groups. I'm delighted that the Post wants to go all out to recognize the music of today. I'll tell you more about it later.

The funniest thing about The Oscar Show was when Charlton Heston came out and the orchestra struck up with "Give Me That Old Time Religion." The musicians were having a ball with that one.

Sonny & Cher were in last week to promote their new movie called "Good Times." They are nice, charming people, but I felt they lacked professionalism by getting up to perform their new record at Channel 13 and not even knowing the words. Come on . . . there's enough time on the airplane to learn one's own record.

The big hit in San Francisco out of the Jefferson Airplane album is "White Rabbit." I'd like to recommend the entire "Surrealistic Pillow" LP again. Excellent.

Glad to see I wasn't the only one who thought "Cresceto Alley" by The Mamas & Papas should be a single. They've decided to shorten it, add some instruments and make it their new single.

The Moving Sidewalks are zooming up the charts with "99th Floor." Congratulations to Steve Ames and the guys.

That "love-in" on April 30 will be at Hermann Park near the Amphitheatre. Just wander out around 10 A.M. Bring flowers, food, incense, soft drinks, books, un-amplified instruments and "quiet" noise-makers (whatever that is).

It'll be interesting to see all of the longhairs in one place.

I was accused of putting down the freaks last week by calling them freaks. I wasn't. It's just a term that's used for freak-outs and love-ins on the West Coast.

Glad to see former Scott's Sneak "Friday On My Mind" making it so big. I have to give Chuck Dunaway half credit. He's the one who first played it for me.

You've got to watch Jerry Miller. He has a way of turning records over and playing the "B" side. The only trouble is that he's usually right. He started on "Tinkle Talk" by The Sixpents and now Joe Ford tells me he's getting more requests for that side than the other. It's my favorite side, but I underestimated the public taste and pushed the other side. That'll teach me.

Mike Scott is now music director of KLIF in Dallas. His rating up there is a fantastic 42 per cent. Needless to say, he's glad he went to Dallas, though he misses all of his friends down here.

Paul Revere & the Raiders will be here June 10. I'll give you the other info later.

Bill Young tells me KILT has a monster of a show coming in late summer. Wonder what that is? See you next week. Hang 10%.

KNUZ-three most requested songs: "Summer Wine" by Nancy Sinatra & Lee Hazlewood, "On A Carousel" by The Hollies, and "A Little Bit Me" by The Monkees.

KILT-three most requested songs: "Somebody To Love" by The Jefferson Airplane, "Summer Wine" and "Walt For Me" by Neal Ford and the Fanatics.

SCOTT'S SNEAK OF THE WEEK: Watch for it on The Chuck Dunaway Show and The Larry Kane Show—"She Shot A Hole In My Soul", Clifford Curry (IELS).
